

DAILY HERALD INSURANCE CARD

Early in December, member BILL HANSON sent to me a similar card to that illustrated above, asking if it was worth a mention in a future Bulletin. As my card was slightly different I wonder if anyone else has any other details.

Both cards have ½d GV Typo stamps with perfin DH (D2210.02). Bill's has no date but an NP pink; mine is dated 14-6-34. Mine gives the address of the Daily Herald Insurance Department; Bill's has no address.

The artwork on both cards is exactly the same but my card, 1934, is for £10,000; Bill's is for £20,000. Are there others with differing amounts? Can anyone pin-point by dates on cards which came first - the £10,000 or £20,000?

Comments to the Editor please.

* * * * *